FOREWORD:

What to remember--what to forget is always a question facing any staff in determining the construction of a year-book. An institution is measured by the length and shadows of its people. This is your institution--your life as caught by the camera during the year at CCCJC. Probably your biggest problem has been your attempt to lengthen and identify your shadow.

If you, while looking through the pages of this book, find any touch of vivid memory added to your life, then our purpose as a staff has been accomplished.

FACULTY

The Board Of Trustees

The Board members are David, Dr. Paul Johnson, Mr. Edward G. Arnold Walker; Mr. Walter Burman; Mr. Dan Walker; and Mr. Aubrey Foster.

The Board of Trustees, for the first time this year, is dealing solely with the Junior College problems. The Board formulates policies which serve for the advancement and growth of the school.

The task set before the Board is indeed important and complicated. The members of the Board strive to do the job with enthusiasm, keeping the welfare of the students, faculty, and community in mind at all times.

President Johnson

This year marks Dr. Johnson's thirty-sixth year with the college. He has seen, during this period, many changes come about in the college. Starting as a teacher and rising to the position of president of the junior college, Dr. Johnson has gained insight into the various problems which arise from the aspect of teacher and administrator. This experience serves as one of Dr. Johnson's greatest assets.

The Deans

William S. Scott serves as academic dean for CCCJC. 1967-1968 marks Dean Scott's second year in directing the academic life and affairs of the students.

Anton F. Buffo is the dean of vocational-technical education here at CCCJC. Dean Buffo is the director of the newly instigated Vo-Tech school.

For the 1967-68 school term, the Student Council was under the presidency of Steve McCorgary and the supervision of Mr. Mathaismeier and Mr. Day. This year the council served the college with pride by making considerable and worthwhile changes. A new sign advertising the college was erected, and the blood-mobile was again a success.

The Tiger's Den underwent a face-lifting including a new coat of paint with a tiger head painted on the west wall; new booths were installed and some new chairs appeared. It was hoped that better furniture could be provided in the future.

The council took a large step chiefly for the benefit of students by providing the student lounges with a new snack center of vending machines. Council members were in high hopes that this advancement would prompt the students to take more pride in their recreation area.

The council also sponsored such annual events as the watermelon feed and after-game socials.

Phi Beta Lambda, a national business fraternity for college students, helps to prepare for careers in business and industry or business education.

Under the leadership of Miss Mary Wilson and Mrs. Catharine Goehring, the fraternity has sponsored many activities including attendance at a workshop, field trips, guest speakers, an all school Dress-Right Week, and climaxed the year by entering competitions at the state convention at Kansas State Teacher's College, Emporia.

The main money-making project was selling the book, "IT HAPPENED IN KANSAS," to provide funds for a scholarship to a business student and to pay expenses to the state convention.

The Distributive Education Clubs of America of CCCJC came under the new sponsorship of Mr. Coday this year. Organized in 1959, DECA has become an organization for the betterment of individual growth in merchandising and salesmanship skills. Opened to both college and high school students, it has grown into one of the more popular organizations in the school system.

The Choir and Vocal Ensemble are composed of students enrolled in a music course at CCCJC. These groups entertain at various activities such as school assemblies which include Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter and graduation functions.

String Quartet

The band and string quartet of C. C. C. J. C. provide music for many of the activities during the year. The band performs at each home athletic event. The string quartet, a new addition to the music program, has performed at special occasions and for various organizations.

Who's Who is composed of outstanding students of CCCJC chosen on the basis of academic ability, future potential, and participation in student activities by secret balloting of members of the faculty. They are named to the National Who's Who of Junior Colleges during their 3rd semester of college courses.

The Student National Education Association is an organization for those interested in teaching. The C. E. St. John Chapter has two meetings a month--one for business purposes and one for a program or entertainment. A project each year provides money for a scholarship to a SNEA member. The sponsors for the year are Miss Williams and Mr. Moon.

The Lettermans Club is composed of the athletes who have completed the requirements set down by the athletic program to become a member. They are the outstanding athletes who attend C.C.C.J.C. during the 1967-68 season and have earned a letter in one or more sports.

The cheerleaders of C.C.C.J.C. are selected each year by the student body to promote school spirit and organization at the athletic events. They attend all home games and those within traveling distance. Mrs. Rhine and Mrs. Farris sponsor these girls and work with them at practice.

The Russian Club meets the third Tuesday of each month under the direction of Mrs. Betty Lee. Among the club's various activities this year were a trip to Wichita for a social gathering and a Russian dinner, co-sponsorship of a film and playing host at a Christmas party with the French Club as guests.

The French Club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Betty Lee, has had another busy year. The club, which meets monthly, includes both French I and II classes. During their meetings, the club members take part in viewing slides and films and singing French songs. The meetings are concluded with the serving of refreshments.

Associated Women Students is an organization designed to stimulate the development of an educated woman and to motivate the fulfillment of her contribution in social, political, moral and intellectual areas, and to provide a framework for communications between women students. During the past year, AWS has held a "hippie" dance and a slumber party in the den. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Rhine and Mrs. Farris.

74 CCCJC Students Earn Fame Through Honor Rolls

Six students lead the honor rolls at Cowley County Community Junior College for the first semester of 1967-68 with a total of 74 earning recognition.

The six receiving all A's for a grade point average of 4.00 make up the President's honor roll and include:

Shirely Bruning, Winfield; Brian Coyne, Ark City; Paula Gibbons, Arkansas City; Sue Huffstutter, Arkansas City; Lorraine Johnson, Caldwell; and Christine Olson, Arkansas City.

All persons whose names appear on the honor rolls must have carried at least 14 credit hours with grades not lower than "C" to be eligible for consideration.

This marks the second membership in the President's honor roll for both Miss Huffstutter and Miss Olsen.

The Dean's honor roll for those with grade point averages of 3.50 to 3.99 is made up of the following 15 students:

Roberta Alsip, Charlotte

Leonard Chastain, Cathy Loyd, and Joe Shurtz have filed declarations of intent to become candidates for the office of student council president. Elections will be held Monday, February 12th.

ment that will serve the needs of the student body.

Barbara Huddleston, Winfield, is directing his campaign.

Leonard Chastain

Leonard Chastain, Belle Plaine, is a football letterman, track prospect, assistant basketball team manager. He is also in charge of Tiger Den maintenance.

His platform includes the providing of card tables in the Den and sound student govern-

Cathy Loyd

Cathy Loyd, a graduate of Arkansas City high school, is an active member-of the student council and the council social committee, Associated Women's Society, Student National Education Association, college chorus, First Southern Baptist Church, and the Baptist Student Union.

Cathy intends to promote school spirit and create a better student-faculty relationship. She also hopes to get girls into more school functions and organizations.

Connie Marrs of Arkansas City will be her campaign manager.

Joe Shurtz, grad of Ark City high school, is active in the college band, the First Southern Baptist Church, and the Baptist Union.

With the campaign "Let Shurtz Put You in the Driver's Seat", he plans improvements in the Tiger's Den, installation of clocks in the former junior high class rooms, and the introduction of curtains in several classrooms in the academic building.

Spring Enrollment Shows Increase

Second semester enrollment had reached 557 by February 1, 1968. This was a slight increase over last year's second semester enrollment.

Numerous withdrawals which marked last year's enrollment were not evident this year. Only

Football Queen

During the halftime ceremonies of the Coffeyville-CCCJC game, Barbara Huddleston, a freshman from Winfield, was crowned homecoming queen for the 67-68 season. In attendance at her court were Aritha Swain, Sherry Miser, Diane Smith, and Connie Marrs. Queen Barbara reigned over a homecoming dance held in the Juco auditorium following the game.

Basketball Queen

Speech Plays

THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST, the fall speech play was cast and directed by the speech instructor, Mr. Dewell. The play, an English satire written by Oscar Wilde, was a success and enjoyed by all who attended. Each character was carefully selected and he rehearsed many hours to present a fine production.

Pam Williams, Diana DeVarenes, Jeff Schlichter, Diana Campbell.

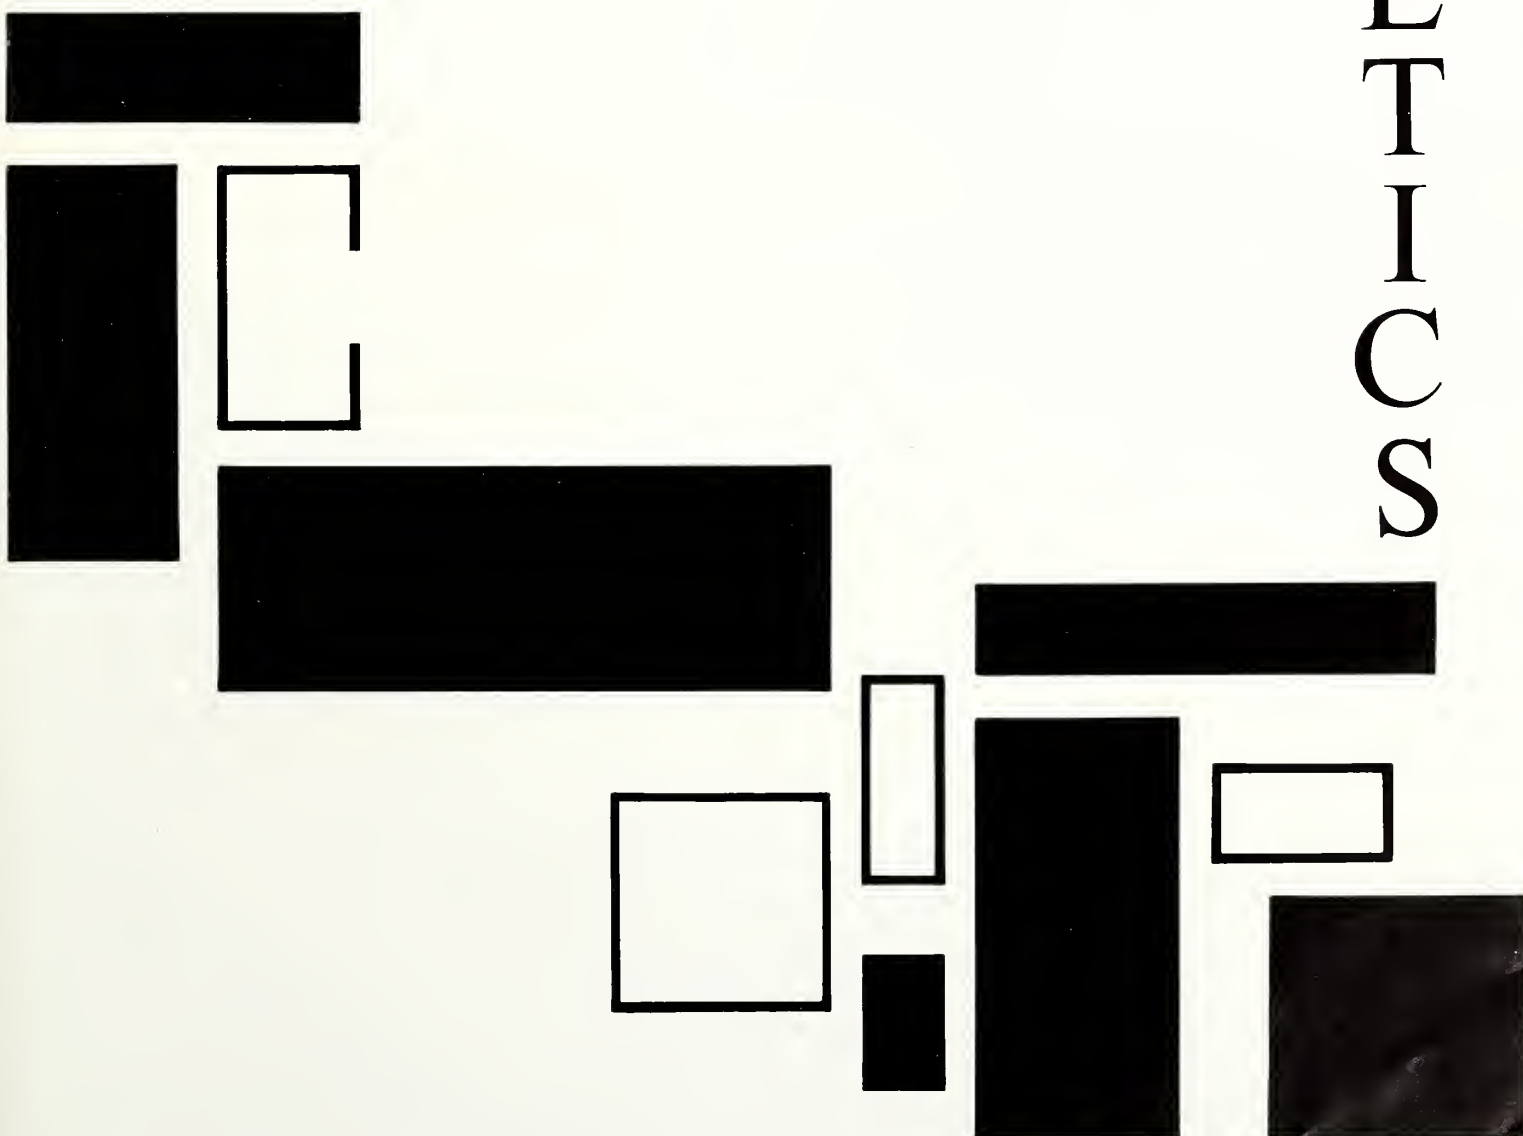

The spring or second semester speech play was presented on April 4 and 5 in the former junior high auditorium. The cast was composed of those students who were active in and taking speech class. Directing the play was Mr. Dewell who also selected the characters.

The title of the spring play is SPOON RIVER ANTHOLOGY by Edgar Lee Masters. Many long hours of work were required to make the play the success that it was.

Cast takes break to pose for the photographers.

5-5 Season For Tigers

On the whole, the '67 season can certainly be looked upon as a success, due to the strong late season finish by the Tigers, coached by Ben Cleveland and Walt Mathiasmeier. The Bengals finished 5-5 for the season, but with a few more breaks they could have easily finished 7-3. A slow start dampened hopes for a high finish in the Jayhawk Juco Conference giving the Tigers a fifth place rating with league victories over Pratt, Butler, and Independence. It would seem that the key to a successful season would be a good start and not a slow one.

Returning sophomores this year were Sam Littles, Richard Dame, Bob Booth, Jim Squires, Tom Simpson, Mike Gracy, Pat Simmons, Maurice Dewberry, Rick Bigham, Dwain Stout, Dan Peterson, Dan Edens, Bill Kenney, Terry Cook, Roger Chase, Garrah Ibach, and John Smith. Those named to the KJCC team were Dwain Stout, honorable mention at center spot and Joel Arnold, first team interior lineman spot in defensive five-man line. Honorable mention also included Sam Littles and Bob Booth, Dan Edens and Dan Peterson, defensive linebackers, and Bill Kenney, safety.

The 1967-68 Tiger cagers coached by Del Heidebrecht and assistant coach Sonny Maynard, tied for fourth place this year in Western Conference Division. It could be said that the lack of experience was a deficit to the Tigers with only four returning sophomores--Larry Leidtke, Randy Sawyer, Steve Minson and Pat Johnson. Also hindering the squad was the loss of several instrumental men early in the season. The Tigers began the season by playing good ball with few errors that needed to be pressed out in time.

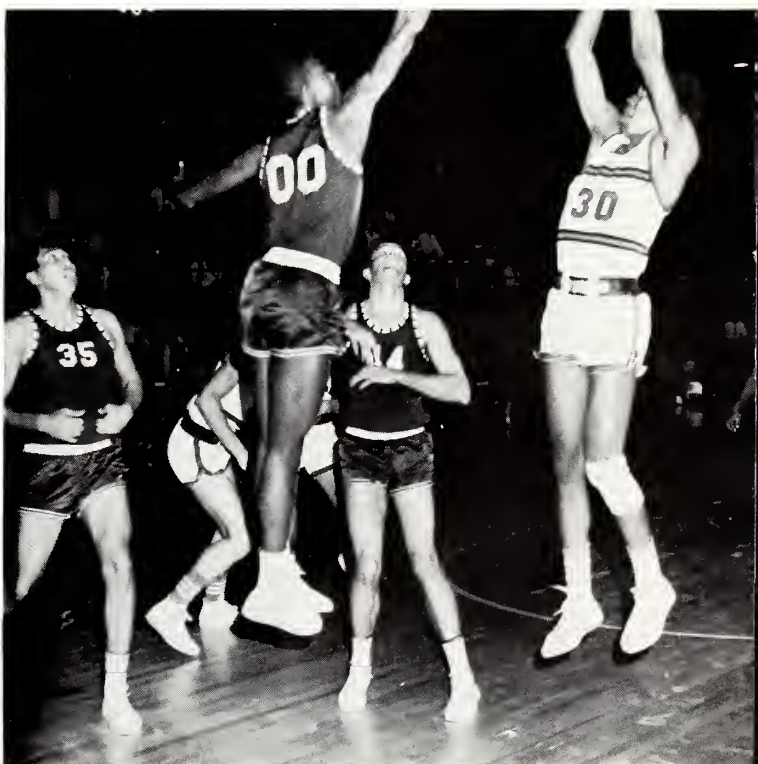

Overall games stood at 9 wins and 18 losses for the Bengals, and a record of 5 wins and 5 losses was recorded in conference play with 1 loss to Pratt, 2 to Garden City, and 2 to El Dorado. The Bengals returned to play the Pratt Beavers in a tournament at Hutchinson, losing 72-74, thus ending the season.

There are several players worthy of individual recognition. The top three scorers were Steve Minson, Keith Jackson, Chick Viger, respectively. Those bringing down the most rebounds were Keith Jackson, Ed Whitehead, and Gary Woody. Individuals receiving the highest points were Steve Minson with 34, Chick Viger with 27, and Keith Jackson and Gary Woody both with 26.

The 1967-68 season brought much experience to the Tiger freshmen which will be of vital importance for the 1968-69 season.

The 1967-68 track team composed of ten men underwent training in late winter in order to face competition in the spring. The team is made up of three sophomores and seven freshmen.

Competing in the quarter mile was Chastain, Morris, Schooler, and Simmons. Running the mile relay was Simmons, Littles, and Ibach. Robinson ran the 220 yd. and the 100 yd. dashes. High jump was competed in by Jones, and the disk and shot were thrown by Arnold and Stacy.

The Cowley County Community Junior College golf team coached by Mr. Mathias teed off in early spring to officially begin the 1967-68 golf season.

AN OPEN LETTER TO J. KELSEY DAY:

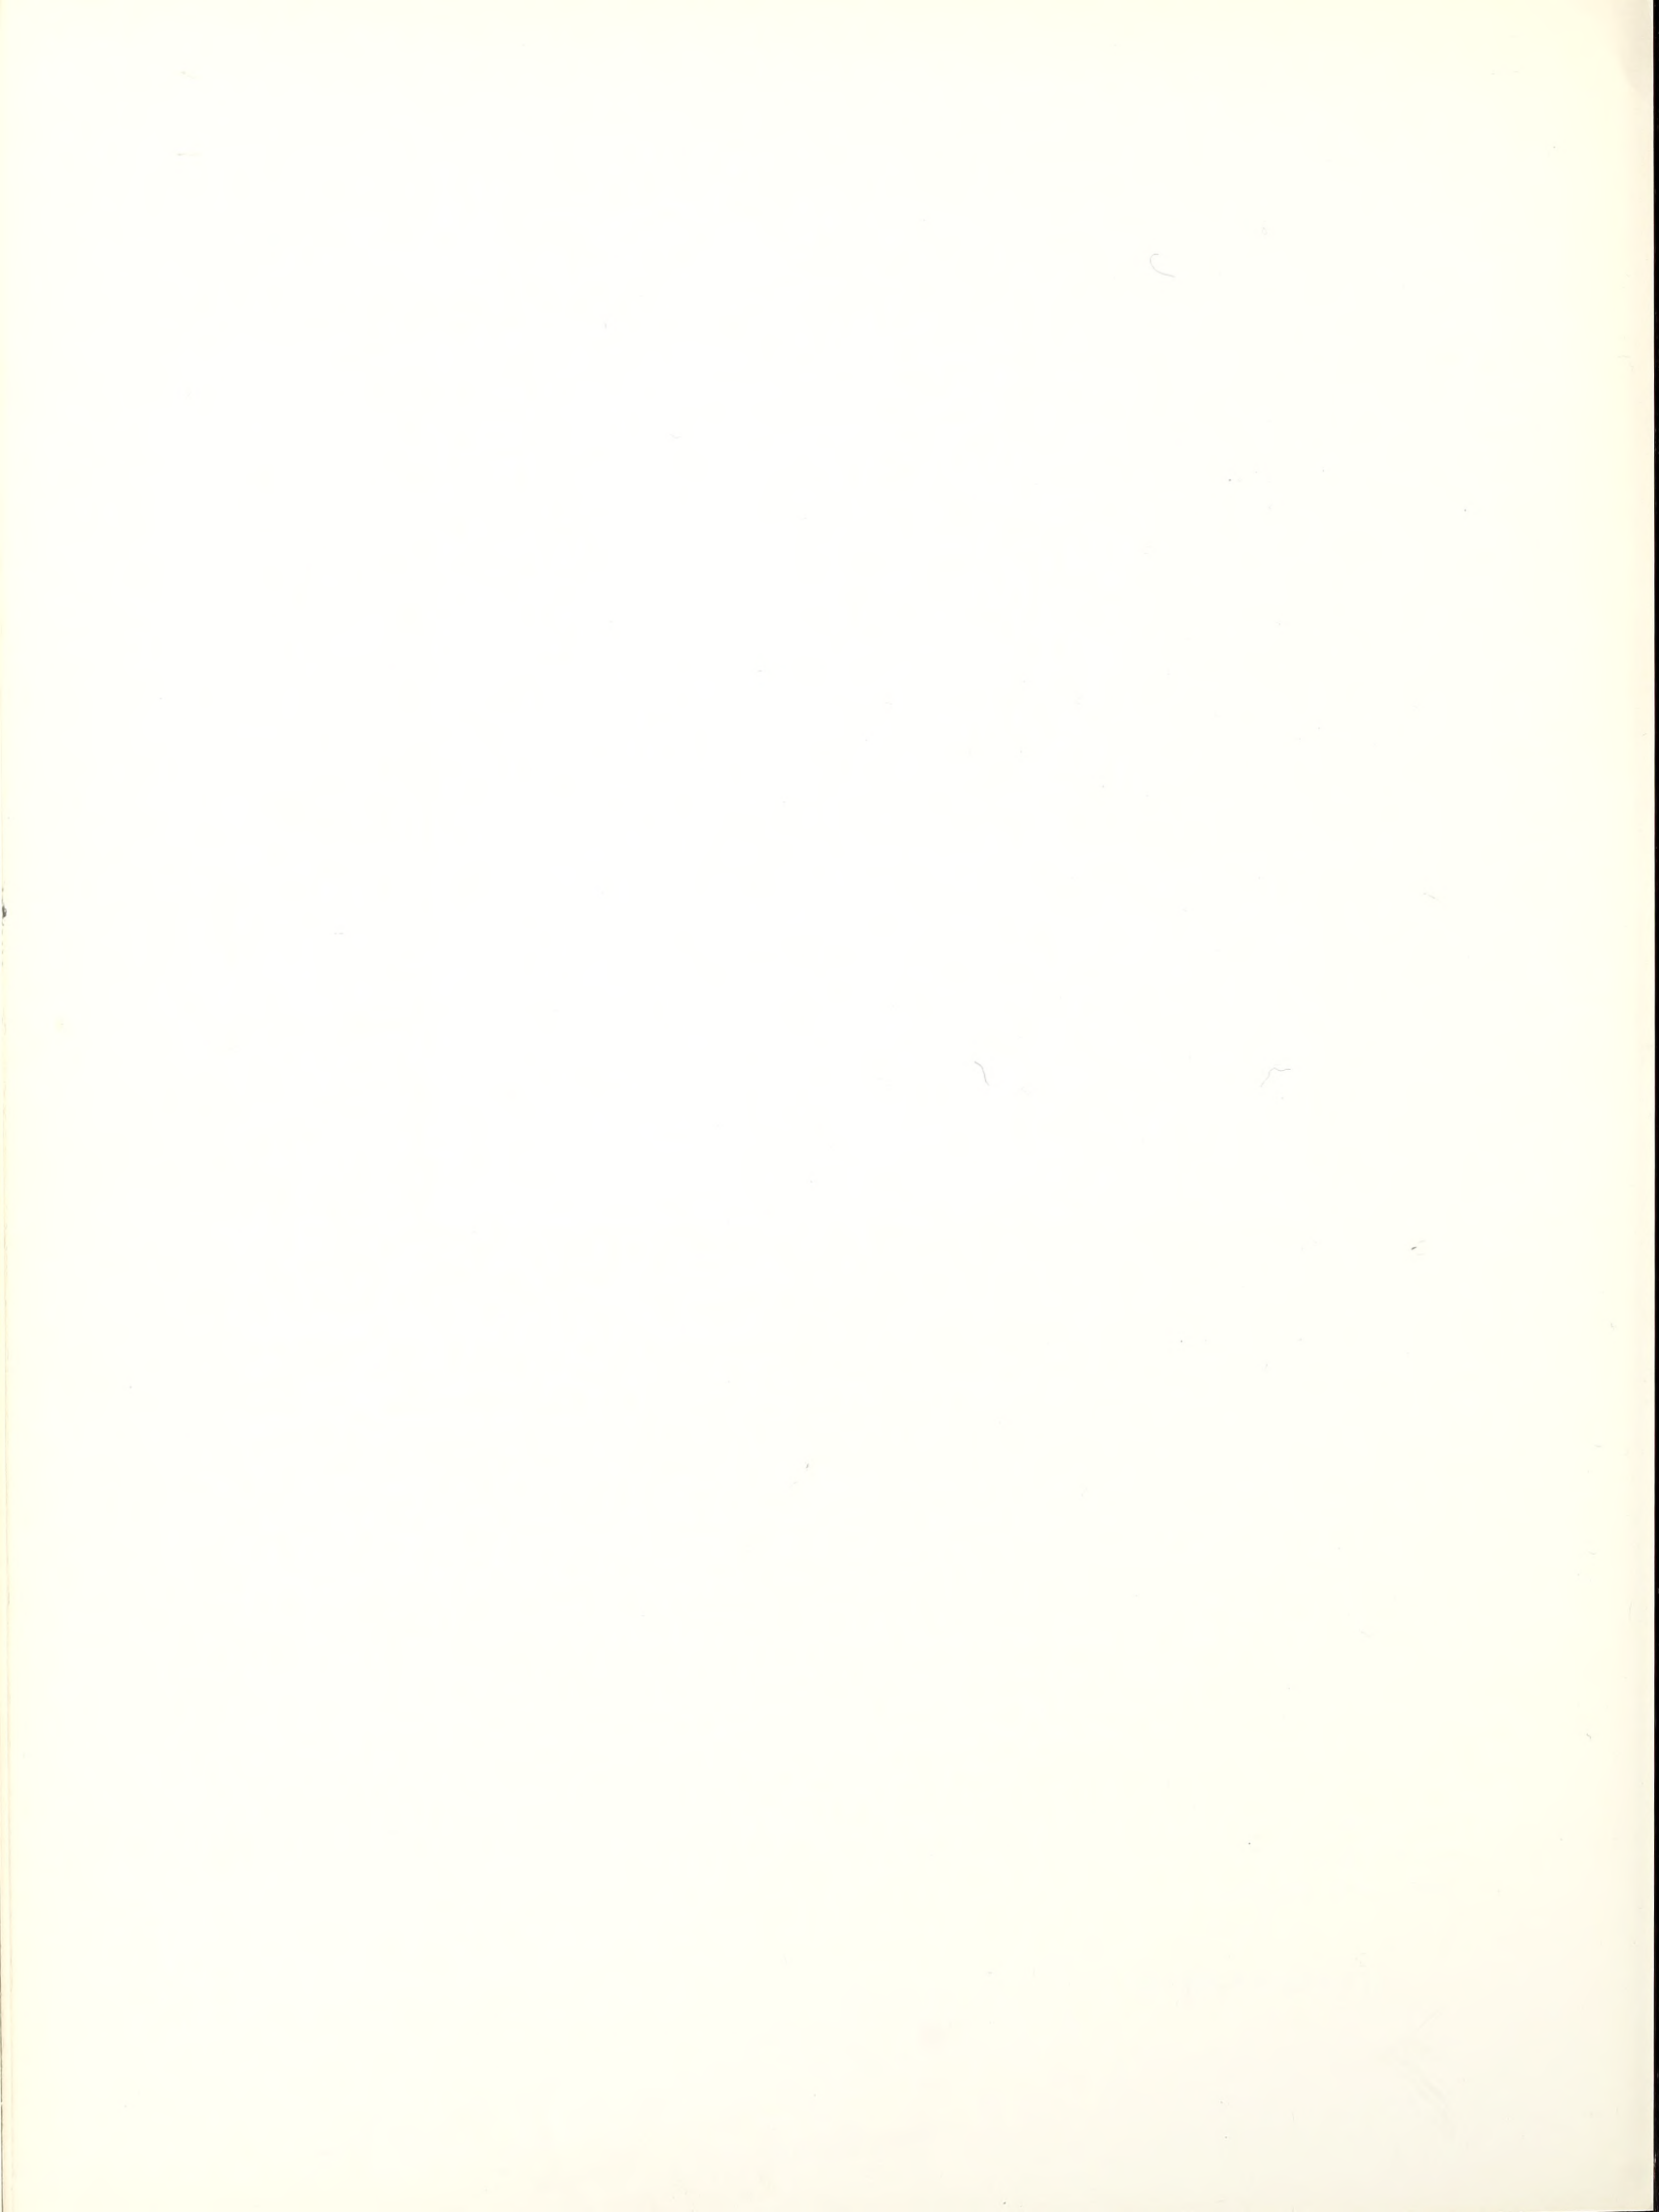

We hope that you aren't too annoyed at us for slipping in this page, but we have enjoyed fooling you for once.

Since coming to CCCJC in 1946, you have shown a deep, sincere concern for the welfare of the student body, both as a group and as individuals and have labored untiringly for their benefit. An active interest and participation in civic and religious affairs have made you an inspiration to all who have ever known you.

You have helped hundreds of students work their way through staggering mountains of starfish, worms, and protozoa. Into our young minds you have planted the fertile seeds of knowledge. But more important than that, you have held before us the ideal of clear, concise, and logical thinking, and have taught us respect for the deeper meanings of life.

Because of your untiring efforts to serve everyone in CCCJC in the many years you have been here, and the pleasant way in which you serve and because of our esteem and respect for you as a teacher and a person, we of the annual staff do dedicate this 1968 TIGER to J. KELSEY DAY.
